Introducing innovation. Meet our new products for 2013.

Introducing new Cultured Stone® products is an ongoing process and the result of extensive research and input from more than 100 architects, builders and designers from across the U.S. and Canada. The newest additions to our portfolio are refreshingly unique and reflect the varied earth hues demanded by today's consumers.

Rustic Manor Handmade Brick

Wolf Creek® Southern Ledgestone

Encompassing an assortment of buckskin raisin, sienna brown and cream, Wolf Creek truly feels as if it was gathered from the land. This extraordinarily beautiful stone conveys a sense of permanence, as if it has existed for ages. The richness of this stone will enhance many architectural styles, including Craftsman, Prairie and Ranch.

Echo Ridge™ Southern Ledgestone

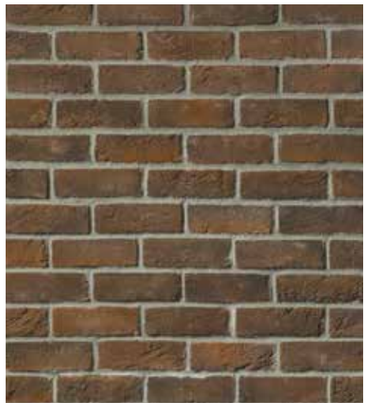
Echo Ridge Southern Ledgestone contains weathered edges in an array of platinum, steel and bronzed greens reminiscent of the finest natural stone. With its extremely fresh appearance, this exquisite stone is appropriate for a variety of architectural styles, including Craftsman, Prairie and Ranch.

Winterhaven™ Pro-Fit® Alpine Ledgestone

The clean, aesthetically pleasing whites found in many of nature's elements are the basis for this crisp, new colorway. Its rustic outdoor look is easily installed and the precise, rugged ledgestone texture creates color and shadow for a variety of design opportunities.

New Handmade Cultured Brick®

For centuries, brick was manufactured individually by the rugged hands of brick throwers. They would lay soft clay into each forming box and then place them into archaic kilns with an inconsistent firing process. The inefficient manufacturing process resulted in an endless number of imperfections that created character and warmth to every wall. With a height of 2 ¾" a length of 8 ⁹⁄₁₆" a thickness of ¾" and corner returns of 8 ¼" - 3 ⅝" Handmade brick allows for easy installation and aesthetic beauty to your project.



Rustic Manor Handmade Brick

Rustic Manor is modeled on true handmade brick, and its deep burgundy-red color is distinctive and rich. The color and texture are reminiscent of the grand homes seen in towns and cities throughout America. Inside, a Rustic Manor fireplace or accent wall will impart a sense of permanence and elegance. Likewise for exteriors; the intense deep color and mellowed texture impart dignity and architectural interest to a variety of home styles from Georgian and Federal to Contemporary.

Moroccan Sand Handmade Brick

The radiant dunes of Erg Chebbi provide the muse of the Moroccan Sand colorway. A natural medley of earth yellow, sand, desert and light beige awaken warm thoughts of sunrays and daydreams. These advancing colors provide an alluring and intimate feeling to lighten up a traditional kitchen, gathering room, bedroom or add a welcoming attribute to your home's curb appeal.
